In all eight of these class action cases, plaintiffs, represented by the same lead counsel from Edelson PC, principally alleged that so-called “social casino” games violate Washington’s Recovery of Money Lost at Gambling Act (“RMLGA”), RCW § 4.24.070, and that the defendants were liable for damages flowing from those violations.

So too here. On behalf of a nationwide class that substantially overlaps with the nationwide class certified in Kater, Plaintiff Steven Horn alleges class claims that he and the

1 Class have lost money to Defendant Amazon by gambling on social casino games, that those 2 casino games are illegal under RCW § 4.24.070, and that they are entitled to damages from 3 Amazon as a result.

4 This action is thus related to the eight cases listed above because they concern
 5 substantially the same parties and subject matter and, if the cases were conducted before 6 different judges, it is likely that there would be an unduly burdensome duplication of labor and 7 expense and/or the potential for conflicting results. LCR 3(g)(4).

8 As indicated above, Judge Lasnik has granted final approval to class settlements in seven 9 of the actions and presides over ongoing litigation in the single remaining action. In light of 10 Judge Lasnik's familiarity with these related cases, Plaintiff respectfully submits that transferring 11 this action to Judge Lasnik would promote consistent results and judicial efficiency.

12
 13 Respectfully Submitted,

14 STEVEN HORN, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,
